To whom it may concern

I am the Sales Director for Today's Senior Magazine. Our magazine provides important information, products and services for people fifty and over throughout the country. I am responsible for Santa Clara County. We have 30,000 readers in more than 200 locations throughout Santa Clara County. We donate one full page color print advertisement in Today's Senior each month to Bay Area Older Adults (for example please see https://content.yudu.com/libraryHtml/A43ks7/SanJosemay19/reader.html?page=10&origin=reader). This is valued at $9210.00 per year.
